2023 - 2024

The visual story, of your perfect day.

Together we can piece together a vision for your special day, ensuring that all those once in a lifetime moments are captured exactly how you dream them to be, allowing you to cherish and share the memories for all the years to come.

I want you to revisit your images in 5, 10, or even 20 years from now, and instantly feel all the emotion and joy from your big day all over again.

Hey! —I'm Tom.

Hey! I'm Tom..

Firstly: I'm so pleased you're here.

It will never get old to me that people like you trust me with a window into their life's most delicate moments. I'm a Lancashire based photographer with an absolute passion for capturing weddings. I'm here to capture YOUR story, inclusive of all the emotion, joy and laughter.

And can I tell you something? I LOVE what I do. I feel like I won some sort of lottery or cracked the code of who I was meant to be, because I couldn't imagine a better role for myself. It's amazing. I get to attend these luxurious, magical, joy-filled wedding days filled with people like YOU and the people you love, and capture it all, knowing that the memories will be loved and cherished by you forever.

“Seriously, stop
looking and book Tom
Now!”

My Approach

Here is a bit about the approach that I take, and the journey you're about to experience with me...

Once we agree to work together, we become a team! i will be working with you, so that together we can piece together the perfect vision of your day. This will not just be me working for you as a "vendor" - i will take our relationship seriously and personally, taking the time to really get to know you. Many people do not know what style of photography they want, or how comfortable they will feel in front of a camera, and from years of experience i can promise you that the best images will happen when everyone is comfortable with each other! - i'm not a huge fan of "stand and smile" i'm more about capturing the moment, and helping to create the opportunities that will allow those true, emotional and beautifully romantic moments to shine.

I do not work by the hour either, instead i work by sections of the day, that way, whatever may happen or delay your day, i am there with you until we capture all the images desired in those sections!

Kind Words

James and I chose Tom Benson Photography over everybody else as there was a clear difference in style and quality. We were looking for natural pictures and someone with a creative flair. At our initial meeting with Tom, we knew immediately that he was the man for the job and he didn't disappoint!! Tom's professionalism, passion and great sense of humour contributed to our perfect wedding day and the final photographs are stunning. We also chose one of the album packages which promptly arrived and we are over the moon. Tom went above and beyond to ensure that we were happy. There would be no hesitation in recommending Tom Benson Photography and we wish him all the success for the future.

Here's why I believe that a Wedding Album will make a difference in this experience for you.

A Luxury album box really ties together the whole package and experience. Being able to go on a phone or computer and quickly look at an image is fantastic, and a convenient way to share your day with others, but when creating a perfect visual story of your day, having an album to cherish, hold in your hands, and look fondly over for years is unrivalled. Each album can be created to suit personal tastes, with different looks, colours and finished printing styles, adding the perfect finishing touch to YOUR special day.

"having the pre wedding engagement shoot was a fantastic idea! my partner and i are somewhat camera shy, and were worried about how we would react to photos taken at our wedding, and the engagement shoot made all those worries melt away once we realised how relaxed Tom's approach was with the camera, and that made us feel much more at ease on our wedding day, almost as if an old friend was capturing the day!"

Wow!! Just fantastic!!
Tom, how can I ever thank you for the photos you took at our wedding? From the minute you walked through the door we felt we had known you for years! You made every one feel so relaxed and calm, we didn't realise you were there and it shows on the photos! the whole experience from start to finish has been exceptional"

- Joanne & Tony

FAQS

What do you mean by “sections” and not hours?

I divide every wedding up into key moments and sections (bridal prep, ceremony, and speeches - would be 3 seperate sections) so if anything at all delays your day, you are not losing your photographer after 8 hours, and missing out on key moments. I stay until the sections you wish to be covered are captured, come what may!

How many times do we meet?

usually once or twice, either for a sit down run through of your day and ideas for it, including all timings and finishing touches or if you are having a pre-wedding shoot we will meet again for that! otherwise we can chat on the phone or message each other as much as needed! if you want to meet more than once we can arrange that too, every one is different and has different requirements!

How many Photos will we get?

I am NOT a quantity photographer, so i will not offer you 1,000 pictures of your day - i believe this style of working gives you many repetitive images, and you may even get a little bored looking through your own images, and thats not what we want! instead i will personally narrow the images down to only the best of the best, ensuring every single image you recieve is what i would consider to be perfect! this usually results in somewhere bewteen 400-500 images.

What happens if you are ill on our big day?

Luckily this is not something i have ever had to deal with! but, i do have contingencies in place - in the unlikely event i am physcially unable to make it to your wedding, for any reason, i will arrange for another professional photographer to attend, who i trust, who will capture your day in the same sort of style i would, and then give me all the images for the editing process, so that you still get a final finished product in the style you wished for!

Kind Words

"Phenomenal Photographer
My goodness book Tom now! You will not be disappointed. The groom and I are not people who take a lot of pictures of ourselves so could be described as camera shy. All of this melted away with Tom's natural ability to put us at ease. We felt so relaxed and that clearly shows through in the stunningly beautiful pictures Tom has captured, immortalising our day to share together with friends and family. Genuinely stop looking and get in touch with him. I would not have anyone else. Phenomenal, such a expert presence with a relaxed and in control attitude. He was non-stop from start to finish. We cannot thank him enough. I promise, you will not be disappointed I am so pleased we found him. May you have as much happiness as we did. We had Tom with us for the whole day from bridal prep in the morning until our first dance. He has captured so many wonderful memories to enjoy forever."
